

ECZEMA ON LITTLE GIRL

Sleepless Nights for Mother and Awful Suffering of Child.

CURED BY CUTICURA
Had Given up All Hope of Ever Making Any Cure.

"My little girl has been suffering for two years or more from eczema, and during that time I could not get a night's sleep, as her ailment was very severe."

"I had tried so many remedies and spent much money, deriving no benefit. I had absolutely given up all hope of making any cure. But as a last resort I was persuaded to try a set of the Cuticura remedies, and to my great delight a marked change was manifested from the first application. I gave the child a bath with Cuticura Soap, using a soft piece of muslin cloth. This I did twice a day, each time following with the Cuticura Ointment, and at the same time gave the Resolvent, according to directions. One box of the Ointment and two bottles of the Resolvent, together with the Soap, effected a permanent cure. I submit this for publication if you desire, hoping it will add to your success and assist so many thousands of sufferers in curing themselves." Mrs. I. B. JONES, ANIMATOR, IND. T.

The first step in the treatment of the chronic forms is to remove the scales and crusts and soften the skin, by warm baths with Cuticura Soap. The scalp, ears, elbows, hands, ankles and feet will require frequently a thorough soaking in order to penetrate the thickened skin and crusts with which these parts are often covered. Dry carefully, and apply Cuticura Ointment, lightly at first, and where advisable spread it on pieces of soft cloth, and bind in place. Take the Resolvent, pills, or liquid, in medium doses. Do not use cold water in bathing, and avoid cold, raw winds.

See throughout the world, Cuticura Remedies, Inc., 150 N. Broadway, New York, N. Y. Sole agents for Oregon, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, California, Nevada, Arizona, Utah, Colorado, Montana, Wyoming, New Mexico, Texas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina, North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Tennessee, Arkansas, Missouri, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Delaware, New Jersey, New York, Connecticut, Rhode Island, Massachusetts, Vermont, New Hampshire, Maine, and all other states.

Expert Collectors

AMONG THE EXCHANGES OF THE INLAND EMPIRE

A Feminine Justice of the Peace.

Lemhi county, Idaho, probably has the only lady member of the judiciary in the state. Mrs. George Lewis of Yellow Jacket is a duly qualified justice of the peace. Mrs. Lewis is a rather remarkable personage. She is a true mountaineer, and a huntswoman in the truest sense of the term. Her house is adorned with trophies of her deadly rifle work, and her skill with the camera. She has been acting postmistress for a district as large as the state of New York for 10 years, and the only permanent lady resident of the same extensive domain for nearly all this period.

She has often made long trips through the mountains with saddle and pack horses. She can throw the diamond hitch, with as much dexterity as she can turn a flapjack in the air. With all usual accomplishments she has more common womanly traits in a high degree. She is a faithful wife, a loving mother and a hospitable and gracious entertainer.—Salmon Recorder.

For an Open River.

There is nothing that will help the entire valley more than the purchase of the Oregon City locks by the government. It is the feeling and opinion of Captain A. B. Graham, of the steamer Pomona. Captain Graham has been a steamboat man of the Willamette river for a number of years and is well able to discuss the matter from the standpoint of an economist.

Captain Graham says that the purchase of the locks by the government would reduce the freight rates from the upper to the lower river at least 50 cents on each passage. He says that every person living in the valley is interested in this matter and that it is worthy their careful attention. There seems to be a move on foot looking to this sort of a deal, but it will require all the aid of every influence in the western part of the state to accomplish the matter.—Salmon Statesman.

Owes a Million.

Charles M. Reed, alleged millionaire, has been declared a bankrupt in the United States district court at Pittsburgh, Pa. He owes nearly a million dollars, with no assets except an Oregon copper mine.

The bankrupt is the son of General Charles M. Reed, a pioneer of Erie, one-time king of finance, before the word frenzy was coined in that connection. General Reed was one of Vanderbilt's lieutenants in the building of the Erie road. When he died he left two million dollars to his son. The remainder of a ten million dollar estate went into better hands.

Young Reed—reared in luxury, knowing nothing but the social graces, a bon vivant, a spendthrift with tremendous capacity for costly things—went the pace. Today he is less than 40 years old; crippled from paralysis, due to high living; almost an imbecile and bankrupt.—Sumpter Miner.

Married Half a Century.

The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. H. Clayborne Veatch of this city, was celebrated today. It was marked by the homecoming of all the living children, beside 19 grandchildren. Mr. Veatch was born in Missouri, 72 years ago. They crossed the plains together in 1853, and were married the next year. Seven children are living. Among those present were:

Mr. and Mrs. "Cy" Miller and family of Walla Walla, Wash.; Rev. and Mrs. William McGill and family of Selma, Cal.; Mrs. Sophia Moseby and family, Elsie Holderson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Veatch of Portland, Elhanon Veatch and family of Roseburg, and Oliver Veatch of Cottage Grove.—Salmon Statesman.

Sheep King Injured.

When returning from his sheep ranch at Hay Creek and the Oregon King mine at Ashwood, G. M. Cartwright of Portland, was badly injured, and was unable to see callers since last Sunday. Mr. Cartwright slipped while descending the steps of the O. R. & N. train at Biggs and fell on his side with such force that he became speechless, in which condition he has since remained most of the time. When he reached his residence it was feared he would not survive the shock. He is reported but little improved.—Dalles Chronicle.

Hay Cheap In Southern Oregon.

Last week J. R. Horning disposed of his entire band of 300 head of cattle, together with 500 tons of hay, at Klamath marsh, to Alec A. Davis, foreman for J. W. Howard. Consideration, $15 per head for his cattle, and $3 per ton for the hay.—Silver Lake Central Oregonian.

Killing Cougars Near Roseburg.

A cougar, measuring nine feet from tip to tip, was brought to town today by Charles Keyes of Melrose. Mr. Keyes killed the animal yesterday near Callahan's sawmill, 11 miles west of here.—Roseburg Review.

Fight Will Be Bitter.

Those who will persist in closing their ears against the continual recommendation of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, will have a long and bitter fight with the fatal termination. Read what T. R. Beall of Beall, Miss., has to say: "Last fall my wife had every symptom of Consumption. She took Dr. King's New Discovery after everything else had failed. Improvement came at once and four bottles entirely cured her. Guaranteed by Tallman & Co., druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottles free."
